Offer for training is based on a weekly organization

Among all applications, some are considered as priority
Minors (13 to 18 years old)
They have 12 to 20 hours of schooling per week.
Schooling is compulsory for all minors.
Low skilled (illetterate and no French-speaking )
They are subject to identification upon arrival completed by a reading test or an interview.
They have 6 hours minimum enrollment per week (an average of 4 sessions of 1h30)

GRUNDTVIG Learning Partnership ON/OFF Project

More specific audiences are few or not schooling :

* Female inmates: less than 5 hours a week
* Inmates in specific conditions (isolation for example) schooling is provided by tutoring or with volunteers.
* Partial release and outside employments : French national education services do not intervene for these inmates that fall under the rules of common law for vocational training.

The teaching unit in prison runs from 36 to 40 weeks per year

36 weeks are the normal period for schooling in all French schools.
In prisons, teachers must increase their attendance over the year.

GRUNDTVIG Learning Partnership ON/OFF Project

Lessons are possible from Monday to Friday (Saturday exceptionnally in some prisons)

Time slots are 3 hours on morning and 3 hours on afternoon (time range of 3 hours is generally divided in 2 periods of 1h30).

Evening classes (4:30 pm - 6:00 pm) are offered to inmates who work.

Inmates enrolled in vocational training can benefit from the teaching of basic knowledge.
