

Centrul Român pentru
Educație și Dezvoltare Umană

Romanian Centre for Education and Human Development

C.R.E.D.

Centrul Român pentru Educație și Dezvoltare Umană

- CRED – Romanian NGO's created in 2001 in order to sustain human development through education for disadvantaged people mainly young offenders.
- Target group – inmate and ex-inmate mainly young offenders, prisons staff and NGO, Ministry of Justice
- Aims – of the activities consist in facilitate the social resettlement of offenders and ex-offenders – introduce new and innovative methods in this respect.
- Area of activities – 35 prisons out of 45 that are in Romania and also the probation system.

Centrul Român pentru Educație și Dezvoltare Umană

- To know new system of prisons and probation system from Europe and their way of dealing with young offenders.
- To know and experiment new methods of working with young offenders and ex-offenders.
- To facilitate the training for the NGO's and prison's staff
- To arrive to establish new partnership for new project in Romania

Centrul Român pentru
Educație și Dezvoltare Umană

- Participate in the diagnose of the reality of minors and young offenders
- Testing of the different methodologies of working
- Implementation of the new way of work - social-educative programs and training